that it is to their advantage to sell them to such persons as may be duly authorized to purchase them as otherwise the stocks may be commandeered by the Government at the lower rates fixed by the Government for commandeering purposes.

It is hoped that by offering available stocks for sale and by selling rice and ragi under the conditions fixed by the Government, Co-operative Societies and their members will set an example in straight-forward dealings.

R. RANGA RAO, Offg. Registrar.

To—The Honorary Secretaries of all Co-operative Societies in the State.
